Dear Pastor and Leader,

Over the past several years, Converge has been working to minimize expenses so the national office can serve the Regions more faithfully. Our shared commitment to “money for mission” continues to guide these decisions, strengthening churches, supporting pastors, and advancing the work God has entrusted to us across the Regions.

As part of that ongoing work, the Board of Overseers directed Converge leadership to explore the possible sale of the Orlando headquarters building. I wanted to report that Converge has entered into a purchase agreement to sell the headquarters building to CRU, which previously donated the property to Converge. While the sale is not yet final, a 30-day due diligence period has begun.

Converge currently occupies less than 10,000 square feet of a 50,000-square-foot facility while covering the full cost of operating and maintaining the building. Reducing this overhead allows more resources to be directed to the Regions and the frontline work of church planting, church strengthening, global missions, and pastoral care.

Even if the sale proceeds as planned, Converge will continue to operate at the Orlando facility for the foreseeable future.

We will continue to share updates as the process moves forward. Thank you for your partnership in the mission to start and strengthen churches.

Grace and peace,

John K. Jenkins, Sr.
President

Darryn Scheske
Chairman - Board of Overseers
